

Loudoun Soil and Water Conservation District in partnership with Prince William, John Marshall, and Northern Virginia Soil and Water Conservation Districts invites you to attend a...

Hay Quality and Feeding Clinic

~ For Hay Producers and Hay Purchasers - Free! - Livestock Neutral ~

Friday, November 8, 1:00—4:00 p.m.

Windy Knoll Farm, 11602 Kettle Run Road, Nokesville

Registration starts at 12:30 p.m. The program will begin promptly at 1:00.

- Welcome - Chris VanVlack, Loudoun Soil and Water Conservation District
- Hay Testing and Weed Control - Tim Mize, Virginia Cooperative Extension
- Hay Quality, Nutrient Management, and Soil Testing - Robert Shoemaker, Department of Conservation and Recreation
- Hay Storage & Utilization - Jake Grove, Middleburg Agricultural Research & Extension Center
- Producing Hay: A Farmer's Perspective - Don Taylor, Windy Knoll Farm

Reserve your space!

To register, please contact Nicole (nicoleethier@pwsxcd.org or 571-379-7514). You must provide your name, phone number, email address, and county of residence to register! You may also write to:

Prince William Soil & Water Conservation District, Hay Clinic Program
8850 Rixlew Lane, Manassas, VA 20109

